

Inclement Weather Policy: Carmen in Victoria Square

Location: Victoria Square, Grote St, Adelaide SA 5000

Date: 23 March 2019

Time: Performance commences at 7:30pm

An open-air and all-weather event – please come prepared

The venue and audience seating in Victoria Square will be completely uncovered. The event is an all-weather experience and State Opera South Australia is committed to going ahead with a performance even in unfavourable weather conditions. Please come prepared with this in mind, so that you are as comfortable as possible.

The orchestra and singers will carry on performing rain or shine!

Performance cancellation

We will only cancel the performance in the event there is an electrical storm or during times of extremely high winds and/or rain. The decision to cancel a performance is not made until 7pm or later and a cancellation may be called during the performance. Due to this, plan to travel to Victoria Square for a 7.30pm performance start time even in unfavourable weather conditions.

In some weather conditions Carmen may have a delayed start time or be paused at any point throughout the performance.

Auxiliary expenses including travel, accommodation or hospitality which you have arranged in conjunction with the performance are at your own risk and not refundable by State Opera South Australia.

Bring warm and waterproof clothing

Adelaide weather can surprise us all at this time of year, so consider bringing warm, weatherproof clothing.

Umbrellas

Please note that although umbrellas can be brought to the venue, out of consideration for other members of the audience they cannot be used during the performance.

Ponchos

Ponchos will be available at the event and will be sustainably recycled.
